The following Letters from the Local Government Board for Ireland and others were read by the Clerk, and directions given to answer them respectively to the following effect (or Orders made on them respectively as follows):—

Letter from Local Govt Board dated 25th inst stating that they have received Dr Hoodhouse's report on the state of the Workhouse in which he states that he cannot speak too highly as regards the cleanliness & order of the establishment and the comfort of the inmates. He reports that the financial condition is not satisfactory, and he states the Refectory Officers do not make written reports as to the condition of children put at nurse. The Workhouse buildings are in a fair state of repair & Dr Hoodhouse suggests that it would be a great improvement if there was a central passage of the dining Hall was closed. The Inspector draws attention to the fact that young women are employed working in washing & the men's dormitories to cut the clothes of their arrangement & the appointment of a paid woman to do this work & being the children for further inspection in a month. They will make a written report monthly on the sanitary state of the Dining Hall floor with slight repairs. They do not see their own men referred to but the Matron will be instructed to take proper precautions.

The Board then proceeded to appoint a Rate Collector for the Electoral Divisions of Cabermore, Loores, Killeeney, & Kewans resigned by Mr Hardman.
