The Reports of the Master and other Officers were read, and Orders made thereon as follows: -

The Master reported that an Inmate named Cath Connors let herself fall from the window of the women's dormitory (second floor) about 10 oc on the morning of Wednesday last, the dormitory door being open at the time. This woman who is subject to fits of Epilepsy had not been well for some time though not confined to her bed, except for a day or two before the occurrence. She had been seen by the Med. Offr on the Monday before & prescribed for, had been regularly seen by the Matron, and had been visited by one of the Nuns (Nurses) immediately before the thing occurred, but no one saw the necessity of having any one specially in charge of her.

The woman is at present in the Hospital & going on well and only complains of a little tenderness about her back. He would suggest to the Board the propriety of putting iron bars on all the windows of the
