Genl Workhouse
13 June 1845.

Gentlemen

With reference to my report of the 16th ult concerning the Workhouse Dietary, I am happy to be able to state, that the change adopted on my suggestion has been attended with the best results, the Bowel Complaints amongst the inmates generally having almost entirely disappeared since its adoption, although I am most anxious to save expense to the Union I feel do not feel I would be discharging my duty conscientiously if I did not recommend the Guardians to continue the present diet during the summer months, I think however Skim Milk may be substituted for New Milk at dinner.

I have the honor to remain Gent<sup>l</sup>
