Letter from same 24th May 1852 in reference to charges preferred against the Master by James Mannion which were enquired into by Mr Bouke Poor Law Inspector who reported thereon, the Commissioners state that the Evidence taken by Mr Bouke does not establish the charges brought against the Master, and that the more serious portion of the imputations against that officer have been satisfactorily, the Commissioners however feel it necessary to state that the testimony of the witnesses leads to the impression that the conduct of the Master has not been marked with that strict propriety of demeanor which is essentially necessary on the part of an officer placed in charge of the Workhouse, and the Commissioners request the Guardians to warn the Master seriously of the consequences which must result to him from the recurrence of such complaints, and to impress on him the necessity of being more circumspect in future. —

The Susceptor suggests that the Board should name the period, the Clerk shall lay before the Guardians an Estimate for a new Rate, that such Rate should be in course of collection week ending 25th August.

In reference to Mr Briscoe's suggestion with regard to the Rates, the Board are of opinion that the 25th of October next in place of the 25th of August would be the more appropriate period for having the Rates in course of collection as the Revision State, he could not have the Revision completed before the 25th Sep^r next.

Mr Wyley, Officer having resigned it was Resolved that the Clerk shall take possession of all his Books & examine his accounts and report to the Board at the next meeting.

The Clerk having stated to the Board that he is obliged to attend as a trustee at the meeting which commences on Tuesday next & consequently he cannot attend the Board on next Board day he therefore requests leave of absence — allowed —
