you had better file notices

My dear Father,

You will be surprised to hear from me from St Paul
The day after I wrote from St Paul I saw the Surgeon General & told him that the health would not answer me, for in crossing the line. I should have to drop the skins & head through swamps, & walk away in my wet clothes. Mr. Stoddard was not aware of this. I have been promised a situation on the Railroad from this town to La. Superior. They are only making it. Minneapolis is a very pretty town. Situation on the right bank of the Mississippi River

at the falls of St. Anthony the population is 1,000. The Sioux-ha-ha falls celebration is - Con-jugal Sioux nation is only four miles distant & well worth seeing. I also saw the dike it is a very good name to see it; it is a like calling men by perpendicular for about 50 feet. The Saw Mills situated on the Minnesota side side of the river all under one roof. These Mills are kept in operation bright & day. During the summer season, turning out half a million feet of lumber every twenty four hours The logs from which the lumber is manufactured are cut during the winter from the prairie

The weather is a little cold The Indian Corn is only just put down, the wheat crop is looking well. Wages are not large here, hired men for farm work get from 14 to 30 dollars per month with board Carpenters from 2 to 50 dollars Stone Mason 2 to 14 dollars Farm horses are worth from 80 to 100 dollars, Cows from 30 to 45 Abner Vance of Good Bay Falls Willa, Oregon who keeps a cow has a bull hung from a tree with their name on it. I am turned out on the prairie to graze he rent to pay a bull costs as much as the cow. or sometimes more, as soon as I get something to do I shall write, with love to all yours affectionately

Dear Sir - I have just got the enclosed per Woodman - It is a humbug - I consider that you were entitled to be present at the initiation - but not to take the chair - exactly as in England no one who has not served or is serving an Apprenticeship of a Blue Lodge can be a member of the Grand Lodge of England: but they have no secrets for that - a certificate of election is all that is requisite I am obliged to run off to Edinburgh on University business

I have shown Douglas that the lettering out a certificate or diploma as they call them is of no use, because it says not a word of Past Master, which is the whole story, and because in Ireland it is not necessary (as here) to know all the secrets of P.M. before getting the O.A.

Yours truly

GPV8

Glasgow
22 May 1848

My dear Sir

As soon as I got your letter I drew out a longish certificate which I desired our Grand Master (a.
Douglas) to copy out and get signed by the Stewards, Treasurer, and Secy, and if sent from I would sign and transmit. I then went in to detail in order to prove that the degree of Past Master could only be legally granted in Scotland, and by or under the Super. Gr. O. and Chapter, and that every O. A. man in Scotland was fully instructed in all the secrets of a Past Master, whether or not he had our own Master O. W. of the Blue Lodge.
Yesterday I had a note from Woodman enclosing Fowler letter, asking me to send it to you, and to return the certificate. I then again wrote to Douglas, from whom I had never heard: and today have received the enclosed. I have written back a rather sharp letter about the conduct of the committee and enclosed for perusal Fowler's letter to show what is really going on. I have asked Douglas to get the committee to meet immediately, and I have written Woodman to call on the Treasurer and ask him to attend the meeting so as to explain every thing -

What you demand of us with is by asking for a certificate under the hand and seal of the office bearing, and seal of the Gr. Chapter - This is not easily done, particularly with a set of mulish fellows, who are not acquainted thoroughly with the difference between actual and virtual Past Masters what has been made in Ireland: were I myself present I could do much: but that is physi-

- cally impossible.

I have said to Douglas that if the managing committee ~~will~~ refuse a certificate - then I insist on getting from the Lodge a certified extract of the minutes bearing upon the affair.
- must of the Chair Master L. of Manchester and this I hope to get - But I would strongly advise you to write immediately to Manchester and get a certificate from the Manchester Lodge - signed by their Master R. W. and Secretary
- that their Lodge was ^{constituted} ^{part-} of the Gr. Ch. of Scotland and that the warrant bears such date that your name is inserted in it as R. W. and that you are entitled to all the rights and privileges of an ^{actual} Past Master This would be ^{by far} your best plan, and could easily be done.
You can also refer to our Royal and Book of Laws, in which you

GPI/9(L)

only just got there such, they will explain the whole affair, which is ditto City clique, who are jealous of my business rank & more so since I secured the loan with the Council of the City to negotiate with Scotland their Council is by the way not formally acknowledged - also at the number of Villiers & Gulliver, that I have brought in an able business man both following by Lord Sutherland & Kirkwall, Hon^{ble} J. Mowbray & Sturges as former members - as Henry Walden Farnell & Maud, I also proposed had him with a D. Major Kay M.C. the Bro. of the Major Kay D. I have also proposed Conner P.M. of 50 an old officer a nice gentlemanly fellow and was

Stoke Newington in London 28 June 1866

My dear Sir,

I have delayed thus long in writing to you on account of an attack of a most distressing nature made against me by some Whig. I did not wish to fret you by saying anything about it until I was well - I enclose you the report of the Board of General Purposes as confirmed by your Judge the amendment, that the portion of Board's report - was lost by a mislaying of every gentleman in the & in the minority mainly the Master & the Master of my Lodge Mr. then was great acrimony between J. W. & the latter Mr. Ellis said that he was not to be believed on his word since the J. W. of 50 years that his words be taken down & that he & true & apologies & J. W. denied having said them upon this point Mr. stood up & said he heard them

 J. W. said he did not know what Party said that as J. W. now said he did not use those expressions of course he would not press his motion then was a good deal of abuse & clamor against J. W. This nettled him particularly after having eaten his own words, that he went on in a very coarse strain. Norman called him to order, but he still persisted and began a busy scolding & scolding Massey & dated & Brophy hands then he stood up & said there was no Massey in Scotland. This was so. said that one universal part of "Lame Shame" & recorded though the Lodge & he was put down Norman was being obliged to tell him he should not speak any more & he up at the door of the Purpos was unmistakably as they would not make it this document I had to send to Edinburgh & Glasgow and Thence and address has been put up to me, in the late shameful attack of the Society in its case of degrading Baldwin the Secretary of the S. O. has not changed it - it appears so all will not do. He was an excluded member of the Lodge & was not present at the installation, nor did he communicate with the Master or Secretary of S. O. My name has been registered in the Grand Lodge Books - as a Member of S. O. without the knowledge or concurrence of the Secretary of the Baldwin, he intended making all enquiries about it as it is not usual in S. O. to register Officers names as former members as we do not pay any more & subscriptions except by the published request.

I have not time to say more at present I should have sent off a long report to you if you had not been so busy, I hope the letter I send you safe. How is my mother going on I have not had a line from her for some time. I wish I had some to write to her, but I have not written since the year has been so long. I got an April letter signed & sealed from the Grand Lodge of the State of New York that I was made of the Chair Master Lodge Mechanics & that I was a member of the Kings Chair Masters

I am so afraid of losing ^{them}

My dear Mrs Lawrence I am exceedingly obliged for your kind inquiries for Mary & her child. I am happy to tell you both are now going on very well, but I can tell you you it was a fearful day, the day she was confined, for coming so much before her time, & the event being brought on by such a serious accident, we had scarcely a hope of saving the child.

& were ever very uneasy about Mary - however Thank God she had a very safe confinement, and has been going on very well indeed ever since; the child is the most adventurously small atom I ever saw - but with great care we may bring it through - the first day none of us expected it to live, however it has improved so much in the last three days I really now do believe it has a good chance of rubbing thro' - if it had come to its full time it would have been a lovely child for its face is so pretty shaped, & it is very tall & well made, but it is so fearfully thin the wrinkles you may perceive by my lengthly details how much my poor little grandson occupies my thoughts, but I am trying to keep myself from loving him ill, I would be very anxious

I enjoyed myself very one of the Sunday schools is taught entirely by undergrads, so we had great fun in helping to amuse the children.

The tea was made first in a bazer & then strained off into a large bath with milk & sugar. I hope Uncle Lawrence is quite well.

I believe next week I am to meet

My dear Aunt Cis

I should think you must think that we have forgotten all about you as we never write, I know we are very lazy so I won't make any excuses but try to make up by a long letter now.

Well to begin with, Papa & Mildred are at Portsmouth staying with Mr. Fichler at Shaftesbury House, Nightingale Road Southsea. They went there last Friday for a ball in the assembly rooms, it was to have been on board H.M.S. Essex excellent, but to Mildred's disappointment they had it in the rooms instead.

Georgie, Freda & Robin are at Dunston under Ann's care, so Fanny, Anna & I are at home alone. & as the house is in a chronic state of clean we are driven from room to room. Are Eva & Alice still with you if so please give them my love & tell Alice we hope to see her here before she goes home, perhaps she might come here & go on to Brighton with Papa & Fanny. I believe the wedding is settled for the forth of October. Papa is going to stay with Aunt Augusta. Perhaps Eva may be glad to hear that she is related in a very roundabout way to Mr Cardwell, for we know a Mr Hodgins who is a nephew of Mr Cardwell's & first cousin to the De la Touches.

Were you not glad to hear of Arnim's engagement, even so many people we know are going to be married & even Feather Hyacinth has caught the matrimonial fever. I wonder if his wife will be called Mother Hyacinth? I suppose you have heard that Horace is made Captain & I am afraid has to go out to India again. When Alice was here she went to a school feast which was the first of a series, for we have had all together six feasts in our grounds within two months. The largest we had was about a month ago. 1500 children & 400 parents came from Cambridge, at about four on Thursday morning although it was raining hard about 50 teachers both male & female, but mostly undergrades.

was also here. & Mrs M. Dill.
Today Charlie & Mollie have just gone off & we are very flat. I to flat.
Mrs Elly was heard twice from of Bessie who seems very happy she is to be in Paris for a week before she starts for Spain. The day after the wedding we all we cousins. I mean went for a walk on the beach & all got photographed together I will bring it when I come to see you. I am so glad dear Aunt Cis that you can take me in for a day or two, I think the time I should like to come would be about the second week in November if that would suit you but I can't quite tell till I know when I go to Constance over & very affectionate. Ha

Monday.

My dear Aunt Cis.

We have sent you off a piece of Bessie's cake & Aunt Elly having a bad fringe, I am writing to you instead.
The wedding went off beautifully. No one cried but an old Jew opener who howled hysterically & almost upset Bessie.
She looked very pretty having a high colour do, I suppose we all had, as some one was overheard to say of Alice as the b. maids passed,

"At last comes one who isn't painted." —
We have had a joyful meeting altogether & I like Mr. Moore so much he is quite fitted for Bessie & will make her happier than any one I know — Henrietta & I walked first then Louisa Whately & Fanny Milley & Minna Alice

& Fanny. all in white & blue & veils — Uncle Harry made a very nice ~~speech~~ speech. & praised absent friends while he said we were the most united family he knew — which is certainly the case. Mr. Pope & W. E.
Whately married them —
Ceil Alder, Martin Gordon Dile, W. Allen & Charlie were our young men.
Uncle Richard & At Augusta & Johnnie came to the breakfast but not to the Church — & the other boys came later. Malcolm (photo) but still it was put in - & we had only to sort it afterwards - I can't suppose that your art or Aniak house can possibly require More than one Van - But you can trust to them, they will give for you - you will them - how many boxes etc.

etc. - it is quite worth while - as far as England's concern I can't say about Ireland but 60 £ included all expenses.
& very small damage was received by any thing - I should always considered that it answered - they don't pack up things they hang them up in closets in their tents - & pack them in the tent as in a box I don't know if "Taylor" but no doubt he is as good as any

When they
I suppose they recommended of you -

I was on the point of writing to you to wish you a Happy New Year when 2 letters arrived just now - So I hasten to do the first & answer the 2^d & as briefly as may be - 11 people to feed in the dining room - & 6 in the kitchen me, give me enough to think about especially at the ways & means are still to be considered by me - & all is on my shoulder for our New Year's motto do all that this Church who well strive to keep that in mind My dear I wish you & your husband all happiness & prosperity in your grand change of domicile - & in all which the New Year may renew those joys - We drank your united health with sisters & I. in our family dinner yesterday - & I really believe in great part to your happiness after wards - your joyful & abiding in being on your own land - & it will no doubt prove the right thing & be blessed to you personally Van we only must do it - as I would Furniture was all taken off Monday at a valuation, all by the Cromptons we employed Mousell - a man who is here - to remove our furniture - they undertook to do & it was a large concern - larger than you could be - as we had 11 beds & all belonging to them in furniture - with the contents of dining room & kitchen & some boxes & boxes

The cost of all was 60 wonderfully little I thought Mousell - sent his folks to Believe - & his men - they down every thing themselves - & transported it all to this house & put it into the house - very Niggledy niggledy - I must say has been the death of the P. of W. of W. of W.

I believe him to be his dear good old Father's good son - & of in some points mistaken - not in every way. To Sunday is inceptance - so I only say the awful - as a sudden call home I must be - but a very delightful death -

I want to hear again from you; if you have to visit housekeeper or Parcel works as you say - why so few letters to those by whom they sh. be so appreciated?

I have been away 4 or 5 weeks - & have been returned a fortnight - London - Bury Hill London again - Arbury Hill - those were my visits - now we are (I & I) going to stay till the Autumn & then I shall try to let this house for 6 or 12 months & go for to London for 3 months or so I shall be abroad -

I cannot afford to leave this house unless I can let it - but as far as income goes - I have every thing left to me - just the same as it was in my dear Husband's life time -

22nd July 1833
Dear Mother

My dearest Child

I have got a letter to write from E. Augustus. So I must not delay. But this heat rather prostrated me. - & so I may be obliged to write but a short letter with the enclosure.

It is part & parcel of the old story, which ^{you} told me. & I believe told you some months ago, in which the fact had communicated from yr. Mother, etc. - & my answer. Adieu was almost word for word what Augusta said - So I hope as we are agreed, we may together make some impression on Susan's mind. - & she be con-

- ed to give up having to do with these bad spirits?

I might have wished that I could recall what used to be a favorite thought - Hope with me = namely that the spirits of our departed ones are not in a bygone - till the last great day - but pass at once into the presence of God & are happy Angels - tho' not having quite received their final doom or destiny -

I can't give myself that comfort now but incline more to entertain the idea that the spirits with the body are "at rest" - like the profound sleep of children - when they go to bed to awake next day - as tho' it had been but a minute -

It was more consolatory to think of it as in the first idea - but of course as to ourselves, when our own death comes - it will be all the same - "a thousand years will be but as two days" - & we shall sleep to wake, as but in a moment -

Neither Whately nor my commentary that I can see - nor our own teaching of scripture can decide it - it remains a moot point - & so doubtless God intended it to be -

How very sudden & so far awful.

Mills are coming this way in August I've been in some some little excursion together with Miles -

Harry is at Ipswich working at his Engineering -

William & Janet going abroad for August & Sep. for their honeymoon - They are now at Winchester & will settle themselves in a house there -

Augusta's house is so nice - & she herself wonderful as to strength & health - tho' she takes it - in a way which is quite harmful -

She has got a nice Miss Taylor now for the girls - I only hope she will keep her they are a beautiful family - but too refractory for comfort as they now are - at Sunning Hill all was just as ever & very pleasant it was to see with the new off. girls & old Malvern who it not altered much - tho' of course her age must tell somewhat -

Now adieu with the girls & the boys to Grandpa & Mrs. G. & affectionate & public - and remember me to all the family -

How are you enjoying yourself? & is the Sale going on? - & are you liking or missing the hot weather set in this week with us? -

Fanny & Mildred are just leaving us to meet Adelaide & her girls & little Robin & Ann. Tomorrow at St. Cath: Docks - & all going to join Robert & the 4 other girls at Coblenz. -

Mr. Reynolds & Cecil with the & Sherlock is at Greatford Lodge spending his last week or so there for packing up his books & pictures - he has sold the house & will be free to go where he likes - Horace is still at Shoberghness - & has been very much of our invalid lately - Mrs. Mary

My dear Charles

I write not to vindicate any act, that you may think that I have committed, as I consider myself perfectly free from having done anything that could with justice be construed into an act of unkindness towards you, even if the proceedings now pending before the Court of Chancery, but only in explanation of what has occurred between us for the last year. I shall try and be as brief as the case will permit, but will have to go back to some of my own case, I shall as far as possible confine myself to facts which cannot be refuted, and in doing so I will recall your recollection in the time I applied to you for advice and assistance at an early stage of the proceedings, when the Plaintiffs Solicitor wrote to ask me, to appoint some one in this country to accept service for me. (I then was residing in England) of the Bill, I wrote to ask if you would allow your Solicitor to accept service on my behalf, in reply you wrote to say that I should act independently of your Solicitor - in another letter you wrote to say that you did not want to prejudice any case that I might think I had, at a later date you wrote as follows, "I suppose you have heard of the question that has now turned up, respecting all our portions viz that probably we have no share at all on the property, Lawson in '63, Twigg in '64 & Fitz Gibbon in '69 - alluded to or hinted at this probability - I must benefit by the this as I shall cover £1500". I think after receiving this letter it was some that I should look for legal advice, and see how I stood in regard to the settlement of 1842 - and the '64 Deb - for up to this time I was under the impression that if the Plaintiffs obtained a decree, all would bequit, this view I held until I returned to this Country in Decr 1877. Now as regards my services ³⁰⁰ were given or at least your solicitor was for over a year that it would not support the Deb, for in March 1877 Mr Russell sent me a draft Affidavit for correction, in reply to his letter which accompanied the draft, & a copy which I send you herewith you will see, that I stated to him that I afterwards put in my Affidavit.

This was the first communication you had with me in regard to what I knew about the Deb, I shall now tell you why I made an Affidavit on my arrival in Dublin Decr 20th 1877 I was served by Plaintiffs with a Subpoena, & the next day I had to be in Carraw at one P.M. I saw Mr Russell at once he advised that the best to do in the case was to make a short Affidavit which he thought would satisfy Plaintiffs & place me in a proper position, a draft was got ready & I approved of it, the next morning I left for Carraw by 9.30 Train, the Affidavit followed me by that night's mail I saw the Affidavit next day Saturday, (as you will see by Mr Russell's letter to me of which I send a copy) and returned it by that day's post or so to be in time to be filed on 24. Afterwards I found that it was not filed till January 14th and this delay was caused by your Attorney asking for an extension of time & which he got.

You are sufficiently acquainted with law to know that now I was subpoenaed I would have to give evidence, or make an Affidavit.
That I was advised to make, and I can't understand why you should fall out with me, you told me that I should act on my own responsibility, and did not want to prejudice my case. I have done just as you told me, and you are not now pleased.
I think it well that you should know these few facts, I now leave you to judge of them as you think best, it is not an easy matter to explain fully all these facts on paper, particularly as I am a very poor writer, Excuse me for writing on this paper as I had no other better paper at hand.

Yours affly
~~Wm. M. M.~~

My dear Mr Lawrence

Very many thanks for your kind letter and for the two Land Leaguers, which prove simply excellent and very much better than their reputation.
Is not this weather at present dreadful?

at night, but have,
as a compensation,
more to do in daylight than I can well manage. We should be delighted to have a photograph of the Volunteer-gate.

Would you care for a Bank of Ireland Token (6^s) of 1809?
If so I shall have sending it to you.

I have a book which I think John would like to read "Gabriel Conroy". If he does not yet know it, I shall forward it also.

Mrs. Bredicker
sends her very kindest regards and thanks and I join her in both.

Very truly yours

The Hon. L. G. Dillon

Dear Sir,

In searching amongst old fire arms the other day, I discovered a flint lock dueling pistol, about 14 inches in length, it was found by a workman in one of the Dublin drains, on having it scraped an inscription, was found on it.

Earl of Roscommon. I regard this find as highly valuable in many respects. You are no doubt acquainted with the history of the distinguished branch of your family.
I feel it would be out of place in my cabinet of old armory so long as there was one to be had bearing the time honoured and historic name of Dillon. Will you allow me to present to you

Jan 14. 1920.

Dear Mr. Lawrence,
I am exceedingly obliged to you for your kind letter and should much like to have the pistols which you are good enough to offer me. Although the connections of our family with the Earls of Roscommon is a very remote one, it may be considered a family relic, as an interesting thing to keep. My grandfather once attempted to prove his title to the Earl's dukedom just before the last man succeeded, he turned up suddenly his relationship to his predecessor I believe not being previously known, but in any case it was made quite clear that my grandfather could not have made out his claim to it - in fact our genealogy book shows that the two branches separated somewhere about 1500.

I wonder if it would be possible to trace to what Earl of Roscommon the pistol belonged, the make of it might give some clue.

There is always a

Our version of this tradition is that Bryan Mahon or Maghon as the name was then spelt, married O'Connor's daughter, descendent of the Prince of Burren.
This O'Connor (~~Prince of Burren~~) had only one son, the only issue of this son was two daughters, one of whom married Burke, ancestor the line of Blarneyard.
The other married Roger O Shaugnessy. Bryan Mahon was born about 1594 A.D., married about 1615 a Miss Power.

ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA

Founded

1768

Imperial House, 80-86, Regent Street, London, W.1.

October 14, 1930.

Dear Sir,

A book of wonders - that is what owners say of the new Britannica. Now, more easily than ever before, they are exploring practically every subject known to man - without even leaving their own homes.

Think how much more interesting and profitable this evening would be to your family

-- if G. K. Chesterton were to join you and tell you in his own inimitable manner all about Dickens and his immortal novels

-- if Sir A.S. Eddington were to tell you the wonderful story of the heavens

-- if you could sit down with Sir Otto Niemeyer and let him unravel for you the intricacies of National Debt Conversion.

With the new Britannica in your home, you could call on hundreds of men like these for an evening's entertainment or instruction.

3,500 authorities from 50 countries combined to make this wonderful new Britannica. In its 24 volumes you command the varied, fascinating knowledge of all the world.

For men ambitious to get on it is a real aid to greater earning power. For women it is a guide in all the activities of the home and in every outside interest. For children it is a priceless opportunity.

Everyone can have in his home this most useful of educational tools. The price is amazingly low - within the reach of people of modest means.

Why not take advantage of our Deferred Payment plan and let us send you the 24 volumes and handsome mahogany bookcase-table, presented free with each set, for your immediate use and enjoyment? The initial payment is only £1.

Send your order in to-day. You will never regret it.

Yours faithfully,

Manager.

Rev Dear Mr Lawrence

On Monday, the 2nd I called on Mr Cuning who is in the receipt of your rents and he informed me he has made arrangements to pay the premium on the Clergy Insurance ^{policy} in due course as he has made up the time, but to obviate any possibility of mistake you ought to write to him and refer him to the letter with copy of the rules while I am willing to comply with your request I must ask you to fix the time when a payment will be made to me by who ever is in the receipt of the collection of your rents.

Abusive language or wrong statements verbally or written are not a payment of a demand

I would be very sorry that anything should occur with that kind of good feeling which always existed between us And had I been treated in the same manner as the other incumberances^s of your property - I never would complain but I do not think a gentleman ought to be allowed to bring in private spleen into the management of his principals property & business matters

Yours truly

Dear Mr Lawrence,

I was sorry to find that the action of our solicitor in re the mortgage put you personally to any convenience.

The fact is that just about the time the assignment was made to us by Mr Maclaren we, or rather he, got a notice from your solicitor of certain proceedings in Dublin, the purport of which we did not understand, so that in order to safeguard the interests for which we are trustees it was necessary that the matter should come into the hands of a solicitor with instructions to take all necessary steps to safeguard our interests.

I was also given to understand by our solicitor that it would be well in the circumstances to ret Mr. Mahon to pay up the interest & that it would be for your advantage, as well as for our own.

I shall take an early opportunity of seeing Father Maclellan, and I am sure that neither he nor I will be inclined to press you unduly in any way.

I remain

yours very sincerely,

Dear Mr. Lawrence

I enclose you Mr. Falks letter - He states to me that he is personally acquainted with you & that a short time ago he had a long conversation with you in his shop.

Before leaving town I called on him and stated to him how impossible it would be to move such valuable articles at your risk - that any purchaser should ~~do~~ ^{do} so from Lawrence town and he quite agreed with me - he has several customers & if he can negotiate a sale for you he will do so I told him your Grandfather refused £6000 for these busts which seemed to stagger him - personally he says he never buys such things but he does buy for his own business old plak, old silver and old China and he would with pleasure make it a days business to go down and inspect any objects of antiquity you may have for sale - I believe old Sheffield plated ware on Copper is now considered valuable and any old silver goes up to 30/- an ounce.

- He showed me a lot of old silver £400 worth which he had just purchased from some nobleman and each fork was priced at £5. I also heard from the other party stating that they had forwarded my letter to the nobleman for whom I act as agent and when reply comes in they will forward result.

I had a letter from Carson & McDowell today acknowledg-ing the £202 which I sent to close the matter for which

G.P. 1186(2)

they send receipt - this making 1 1/2 years Interest paid. But they now say no amicable settlement can be made unless the entire interest is discharged - I am at a loss to know why the Scotch Company are so hostile to you If they enforce this it will absorb the whole fund we have obtained to meet the other charges - I have written to the Company asking them to instruct

Messrs Carson & M^r Dowell to withdraw the case.

Dear Mr. Mason

A gentleman who has recently obtained a loan of sixty thousand pounds for his client at four & a half per cent. is now concerned in obtaining a loan for me in the same quarter, at four and a quarter per cent. On investigating my Title &c. &c. He has arrived at the conclusion, that the four thousand pounds, now paid off out of my Life Estate is mine

And that the Scotch Company hold that sum as Trustees for me, and can assign it to me at any moment. At the end of thirteen years, the remainder of the Scotch money will be cleared off, thus giving me the round sum of eight thousand pounds, or the whole of the Scotch Mortgage. Independently of this announcement a case has been carefully prepared by my Solicitors for the opinion of Council, and Council has no hesitation whatever as to the correctness of the facts above stated. It is singularly curious that the Scotch Deed of Mortgage is silent as to the ultimate destination of this eight thousand pounds it is therefore thought advisable that a Judicial declaration should be at once obtained, as to who the parties are who are entitled to this money. If it should turn out that I am legally entitled to it, then a loan of four thousand ^{pounds} on first charge at four and a quarter ^{percent} would pay off the Scotch Companies reduced charge of four thousand pounds, which would ease the Estate of a considerable amount of Interest. The Lender will also lend on my own Deed of five thousand. About twenty years ago my then Solicitors, Messrs Flood & Russell,
