Almost all the destitute poor from the various divisions of the Union are now in the Work House and the guardians desire to know whether persons rated to the Poor at £5. £10 & £15 & £20, or mechanics earning 2<sup>h</sup> per day wages are entitled to gratuitous Medical Relief for their families or whether the Medical Officers to be appointed to the proposed Dispensary Districts of the Union may not be required by the Committee of Management to visit persons in their Districts who may not be entitled to gratuitous visits, upon payment of a fee of 5<sup>h</sup> such persons finding their own medicines, it may be right to state that some Medical Practitioners have adopted that scale of fees in such cases in this Union.

It is most desirable as far as possible to define who may be entitled to gratuitous Medical Relief and the Commissioners are requested to give the Guardians their opinion on the Subject
