Read the following letter

Gentlemen

I beg leave to submit for your consideration the books of vaccination for the Loughrea & Killulla divisions. In the Loughrea division I vaccinated one hundred & thirty six, successfully out of one hundred & seventy six previous to Monday. Some of the sixty eight returned to have the second time, but the greater number would not return (altho' many successful cases among them) to have them certified for. To this I beg leave to direct your attention

On Monday I vaccinated sixty four new persons in the same division. In the Killulla there are twenty certified cases out of ninety. As in the other division some would not return, there were two cases whose state of health would not permit of their being out.

May I beg leave to direct your attention to the number of persons who have have not returned for certificates and shall feel obliged by your directing the means by which they are to be compelled to do so.
