The Bonds & other Securities in force were laid before the Board by the Clerk who reports that a discrepancy appears to him in the Master's ^{Copy} late Clerk having inserted therein after the word Whereas by a certain other Order the 23rd July 1841 which appears to be the 1st day of October 1839.

Resolved that this Board be respectfully to differ in opinion with the Commissioners in reference to the signing of Orders for Provisions and Necessaries for the ensuing week, in as much as it will be impossible for the Master to furnish an exact estimate of these Articles not knowing the No of Paupers that may be admitted on Saturday after his estimate is made out, the No of Discharges that may take place during the ensuing week, and the No that may be admitted into or Discharged from Hospital in the week and on these grounds together with the experience we have had as Finance Committees from time to time which affords us an opportunity of seeing that the receipts as endorsed at least by the Master are always more or less than the quantity ordered by the Guardians and therefore we have suggested this alteration to remedy the defect apparent to us, in the usual course to which we are of opinion the Commissioners ~~are~~ ^{will} agree in, the Guardians consider that it is better rely upon the order of the Chairman of the Board as a voucher than leave a discretion of such a nature to the Master
