The Bonds and other securities in force were laid before the Guardians by the Clerk, together with his Report thereon, as follows: (this on the second Meeting after the Annual Election in every year).

Notice was given by Mr. Jas. Burke to propose on this day fortnight the following Resolution, and for the consideration of which a general Meeting was called.

"It appears to us expedient to encourage the growth of Corn in Ireland for the following reasons, —

It will enable the tiller of the Soil to employ more hands and reduce the numbers in the Workhouses, it will leave foreign Corn cheaper for the persons who have not taken advantage of the poorhouse, and it will secure a regular supply of grain in the Country so as not to leave us dependent on foreign Grain from Countries where taxation bears so small a proportion to ours, and for these reasons we recommend grain the produce of the Country to be substituted for foreign grain

J. Smyth

Next Meeting of the Guardians to be held on Saturday the 14th day of December 1850.
