The Master of the Ballinacree Workhouse attended before the Board and gave his explanation of the clothes sent with the Paupers (their own clothes) at the time of their transmission. In most instances it is manifest from the time the Boys have been in the House that the clothes they brought in could be of no manner of use and it would be desirable that such of them as were to go out should be furnished with such clothes as could be made up for them. The clothes appears to have ^{been} given to the Paupers themselves and not to the Officer of Mount Pelier Street and hence the confusion and matters arising with them.

Resolved, That the Master be authorized to purchase some old clothes for the purpose
Cost not to exceed 3/- a suit

Resolved, That Robert St. John and J. Kelly Esqrs. be appointed a Visiting Committee for enquiring into the
