

Páirc agus Clós Súgartha Rinn Mhíl

Rinville

Park and Playground

Is áis nádúrtha iontach í Páirc Rinn Mhíl a thugann deis do dhaoine páirt a ghlacadh i raon leathan gníomhaíochtaí, lena n-áirítear siúl nó rith feadh na gcosán coillearnaí agus páirce áille, súgradh i gclós súgartha an gharraí daingín, agus sult a bhaint as saibhreas na hoidhreachta tógtha atá ann. Tar isteach agus déan taiscéalaíocht!

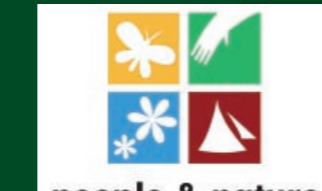

Is linne go léir Páirc Rinn Mhíl agus is iomaí planda agus ainmhí atá ann. Bain sult as do chuairt agus cabhraigh linn aire a thabhairt dár bpáirc agus dár bhfiadhúlra le go bhféadfaimid coinneáil ag baint taitnimh as an áit speisialta seo.

*Ná fág ach lorg do chos – ná fág bruscar i do dhiaidh!
Ná caith ach an t-am
Ná tóg leat ach cuimhní cinn agus pictiúir*

Rinville Park is a wonderful natural amenity that provides an opportunity for a wide range of activities that include walking or running along the beautiful woodland and parkland trails, playing in the walled-garden playground, and soaking up the rich built heritage. Come on in and explore!

Rinville Park belongs to all of us and is home to many plants and animals. Please enjoy your visit, and help us care for our park and our wildlife, so that we can all continue to enjoy this special place.

*Leave only footprints – don't be a litterbug!
Kill nothing but time
Take nothing but memories and photographs*

Credits: Text- Janice Fuller and Hugh Carey (Built Heritage); Photos- Janice Fuller, Tom Cuffe, Caitriona Carlin; Illustrations- Rory O'Shaughnessy, Donal Magner, John O'Loughlin; Mapping- Brídín Feeney and Mark Conroy; Translation- Padraic de Bhaldráithe.